

LEARN TO MAKE FILM HISTORY!

Are you aged 13-18? Interested in history? Want to make a film and screen it in a cinema? Join us in September/October 2017 for the Arctic Convoys Film Workshops in Cambridge!

The Independent Film Trust is teaming up with the Cambridge Russian-Speaking Society to teach a series of film-making workshops focused on the famous Arctic Convoys - the teams of British and Russian ships that sailed essential supplies to the USSR during the Second World War.

Meet the few remaining veterans who sailed the voyage and learn how to turn their amazing stories into short films!

You'll learn:

- Researching
- Interviewing
- Editing
- Story-telling
- Filming
- Animating

The workshop will culminate in a cinema screening where the films will appear for a public audience.

Apply now by sending a short letter of interest to charlotte@independentfilmtrust.org - tell us your age, why you want to take part and what you would bring to the team. No filmmaking experience necessary.
