RUSSIAN SPRING WEEKEND COURSE PROGRAMME 2019

TUITION: 13 hours in small groups

You will be offered a wide range of vocabulary, texts and recordings. You will practise your newly acquired (or developed!) knowledge and skills in each special-interest area (see below!) through participating in a variety of role-plays, games, debates and team tasks, acting as an interpreter at a journalist forum, or as a guide in the art museum, or a chef in the Russian restaurant. By the end, you will create a project with your special-interest team.

We offer the following SPECIAL-INTEREST GROUPS:

1) Cuisine & Leisure. Relax and chat about such enjoyable pastimes as sports, cooking, gardening, and watching TV. Learn about famous recipes of the Russian cuisine. A spot of grammar home improvement will give your Russian a nice spring cleaning.

2) Prose & Difficulties of Translation. Enjoy meeting your favourite characters from the Russian classical and modern literature – Bunin’s, Bulgakov’s, Dovlatov’s or Tolstaya’s – to answer the eternal Russian questions: Кому на Руси жить хорошо? Кто виноват? and Что делать? Crack the problems professional translators come across, like Пить есть, есть нет.

3) Visual Arts & Crafts. Revisit famous art collections in the Russian museums. Explore “The Wanderers” and compare them with Russian Avant-garde and Socialist Realism. Try the role of an auctioneer at the Russian sales to identify the best-selling modern Russian painter. Discover the world of folk crafts from Sergiev Posad and Dymkovo.

4) History & Current Affairs. Discover some secrets from the Russia’s past and relate them to the present. Compare the interpretation of current affairs in the British and Russian media. Try the role of a journalist or an interpreter at a political debate, and write your comments on a Russian forum.

5) Poetry & Creativity. Discover what makes Russian poetry so powerful and captivating. Enjoy the beautiful sound, music and imagery of Russian verses from Pushkin to Brodsky. Listen to the poets’ own voices, and guess who is who. Explore Russian rhymes and discuss different approaches to poetry translation. Have a go at translating or creating a poem of your own.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: 6 hrs

- ✓ Talk “The Mysteries of the Russian Church” by David Taylor (in English). The presenter is a retired Baptist Minister who has been visiting Russia regularly over the past 25 years. He has a first-hand experience in teaching at various churches and Bible schools as well as meeting other priests in the Orthodox Church.
- ✓ Quiz night (in Russian, with English translation). You prepare questions on your favourite topic at home as well as in your selected Interest Group. The winners get prizes!
- ✓ The Final Show (in Russian). Each Interest Group prepares a 20-minute presentation with their tutor. You are also welcome to demonstrate your skills individually.
