

Ludmila Perlova presents BAUHAUS101+

An art exhibition dedicated to the 101st anniversary of the world-famous Staatliches Bauhaus – a German Art and Design School founded in 1919 in Weimar by architect Walter Gropius (the creator of Impington Village College buildings).

The exhibition features works of art and design inspired by the achievements of some distinguished artists who influenced Bauhaus style, such as Wassily Kandinsky and Piet Mondrian. The exhibits illustrate the continuing influence of Bauhaus ideas on modern art and design.

December 28 & 29 | 2 – 7PM

Admission policy:

Due to the current epidemiological situation, please, book your visit in advance at www.tinyurl.com/l-perlova-bauhaus101

St Augustine's Church 101 Richmond Rd, Cambridge CB4 3PS

Q: Will the exhibits be available for purchase?

A: Yes some works will be available, please enquire.

Q: Is this exhibition suitable for children?

A: Children under twelve may find it difficult to appreciate this exhibition.

Please, send any enquiries to: lu.perlova@gmail.com